

Suggestions for Enrichment activities during COVID restrictions

School trips, clubs and extra-curricular activities have been limited as a result of the COVID restrictions. Many museums, sites and attractions have been closed to visitors in Britain and across the World. Whilst travel is restricted within Britain and abroad you may wish to do a “virtual” visit to one of the places below.

Option A – Visit a tourist attraction

Here are also some other suggestions for ways that extend, enhance and enrich your education beyond the classroom by selecting some of the options below.

Option B – Listen to a podcast

There are some suggestions here:

<https://www.wired.com/story/best-podcasts-for-kids/>

Option C – Read a book or article

- You can download free ebooks and audiobooks with your Barnet Library card here
- You can borrow books from East Barnet School library
- If you have an Amazon Prime account you get free access to a wide range of books and magazines. For a fee you can also upgrade this account to Amazon Unlimited for an even wider range.
- Readly - is a subscription service that gives you access to thousands of magazines for your whole family:

Here are some suggestions for where you can find articles using East Barnet School Library

Go to the EBS School Library SharePoint – Online Resources - here

Then click on the link to Dynamic Learning

Username: library@eastbarnet.barnet.sch.uk Password: review Centre ID : 15022

Option D – Interview a family member or friend and ask them about the most important historical or cultural event that has happened in their lifetime. Ask them:

What the event is or who the person is

When did it happen or when did they live?

What happened? What did they do?

Why is this event or person so important? Why did they choose this event or person in particular?

Option F – Watch a documentary on any topic that you find interesting
